Dear Dick,

I was glad to get your letter this morning and to know that you are coming up next week. I hope we have as good weather as we had over this week end. Are you coming alone? I should think you would be lone some.

Lois called up yesterday and we had a little talk.

Oh, Lois been meaning to tell you I liked the pretty Easter card you sent and

I haven't done it, but perhaps I have thought of it more than if I had.

I am crazy to go
for another ride in that grand car. We are supposed to
go riding after 7:30,
but I'll go my best to get you
approved for a chaperon.

Travelling yours,

P.S. What do you think?
The baggage man remembered Tommy's name &
sent her my mileage.
What do know about
good luck!!!
